Sir Robert A. Falconer,
President
University of Toronto,
Toronto, Canada.

Dear Sir Robert:

Dr. John A. Stewart, whom you honored the same day as the late Joseph W. Choate, is writing an interesting book on International Relations.

I think that he would be very glad to give a lecture on the subject should you feel like inviting him to do so sometime

As you know he is an interesting speaker.

I trust that you and Lady Falconer have had a pleasant and restful summer.

I hope that the Canadian Government will follow the example of the U.S.A. and conscript a large number of students for the Universities.

With very best wishes,

Most respectfully yours,

T. Kennard Thomson

Dear Dr. Thompson:

I am sorry that I cannot go down to the Annual Dinner this year. I wrote to Mr. Caswell that I would have somebody else go, but there is no chance of getting Colonel Mitchell as he will not arrive here until some time in May. Perhaps you may get him next year.

Yours sincerely,

President.
